7. Services which require the purchase of new hardware or software are not included and such purchases must be agreed to and paid for by all Parties. The Parties shall agree to the allocation of cost responsibility for such hardware or software in light of the surrounding circumstances.
8. The ESC shall not be liable to the City or the District in the event that the City's or the District's existing IT setup fails resulting in a loss of data or other damage which did not arise through any negligent act of an employee of the ESC. The Parties each acknowledge that this Agreement, and the initial assessment provided herein does not guarantee the continued normal operation of the Parties existing hardware, software and network configuration. The ESC shall not be liable for any consequential or special damages resulting from a failure of the City's or District's existing IT setup which does not arise from the negligent act of an employee of the ESC.
9. Any party to this Agreement shall have the option to terminate this Agreement upon 60 days written notice to the other parties. If the District or the City choose to terminate this Agreement as provided for in this Section, such party shall remain responsible for its financial obligations up through the date of termination. The current quarter in which the termination becomes effective will be pro-rated.
10. Any party to this Agreement may elect to terminate this Agreement in the event that another party has materially breached its obligations, provided that the non-breaching party has provided written notice to the breaching party and the breaching party has not cured its material breach of this Agreement within 10 days of the date written notice is provided by the non-breaching party to the breaching party. If the District or the City choose to terminate this Agreement as provided for in this Section, the District and City shall remain responsible for their financial obligations up through the date of termination. The current quarter in which the termination becomes effective will be pro-rated.

11. In consideration the employment of the individuals to fill the positions described in Section 1 above by the ESC, and in consideration of the 60 day termination for convenience provided by Section 9, the Parties agree to share equally any unemployment compensation liability which may become payable by reason of the services provided under this Agreement or the termination of such services.

ORC § 5705.41 and ORC § 5705.412

We hereby certify that the Board has in effect for the remainder of the fiscal year and succeeding fiscal years the authorization to levy taxes including the renewal or replacement of existing levies, which when combined with the estimated revenues from all other sources available to the district at the time of certification, are sufficient to provide operating revenues necessary to enable the Board to maintain all personnel and programs for all the days set forth in its adopted school calendars for the current fiscal year and for a number of days in succeeding fiscal years equal to the number of days instruction was held or is scheduled for the current fiscal year. We additionally certify that the amount required to meet the obligation of the fiscal year in which the attached contract is made has been lawfully appropriated for such purpose and is in the treasury or in the process of collection to the credit of an appropriate fund free from any previous encumbrances.
