Residential

One, two and three family residential building permit applications shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred sixty dollars ($260.00). Said fee shall be applied to the total building plan review, inspection fee and zoning fee. In the event the permit is not paid for within six months or work is not started within six months of issuance, or the permit is withdrawn and/or canceled by the applicant, said fee shall not be refunded.

Residential building permit applications (other than (a) above) shall be accompanied by a fee of forty-five dollars ($45.00). Said fee shall be applied to the total building plan review and inspection fee. In the event the permit is not paid for within six months or work is not started within six months of issuance, or the permit is withdrawn and/or canceled by the applicant, said fee shall not be refunded.

Commercial

Commercial building permit applications shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500.00). Said fee shall be applied to the total building plan review and inspection fee. In the event the permit is not paid for within six months or work is not started within six months of issuance, or the permit is withdrawn and/or canceled by the applicant, said fee shall not be refunded.

In the event a structure is occupied prior to the payment and issuance of a certificate of occupancy, the applicant listed on the original building permit application for which said certificate is required, shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars ($500.00). Failure to pay said fee shall prevent said applicant from obtaining future building permits. Temporary certificates of occupancy may be issued at the discretion of the Building Official. If, in the opinion of the Building Official, additional temporary certificates of occupancy can be issued, each temporary certificate of occupancy shall require the same fee, if any, as was required for the initial temporary certificate of occupancy. Failure to comply with any requirements to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy prior to the expiration date of a temporary certificate of occupancy shall subject the applicant to the five hundred ($500.00) fee provided for in subsections (e) and (f) herein. This fee is in addition to the fee, if any, required for the issuance of the temporary certificate of occupancy.
