Press Release #2 / Homicide Investigation / Middletown (Blue Ball Area)

Police looking at anyone in the area not just person(s) walking or hitchhiking.

Monroe Police are still seeking information in the Homicide Investigation of Mrs. Barbara Howe. A $10,000-dollar reward is being offered for any tip leading to the arrest and conviction of the suspect(s) responsible in the homicide of Barbara Howe.

If anyone picked up a hitchhiker, saw someone walking, or picked up by anyone in the Woodridge East Apartment area in Middletown on Monday morning, October 29, in the early morning hours contact the Monroe Police Department at 513-539-9234 or 513-360-2211.

The Woodridge Apartments are near St. Rt. 122 and Cincinnati Dayton Rd., or near the Blue Ball area of Middletown. What appears minor to you may be very important to the police. If you think you saw something please call the Monroe Police Department at 513-539-9234.
